

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

School Resource Officer Course February 20th through February 24th, 2012 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM

The Public Safety Training Center in partnership with the Rochester Police Department will be conducting the DCJS certified School Resource Officer Course. This five-day course will be held at the Training Center, 1190 Scottsville Road, Rochester, NY, on the above dates and time in room 109.

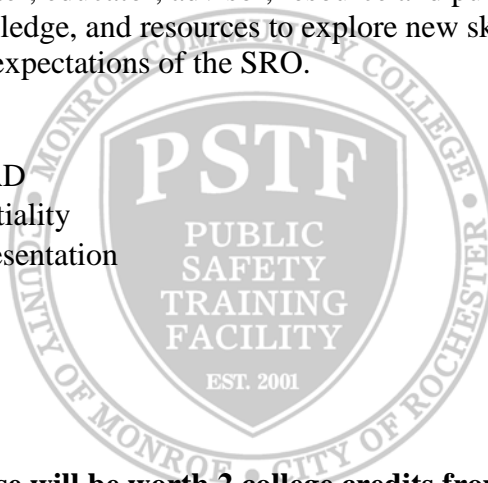

Prerequisites: Participants must be active, sworn law enforcement officers.

Program Overview: This course trains law enforcement personnel who are assigned to work in schools. Utilizing a triad approach consisting of law enforcement, intervention, and education the officer will learn how to establish and facilitate an effective community orientated law enforcement program.

The School Resource Officer (SRO) is a blending of all skills an individual brings to the position: law enforcement, parent, brother, sister, educator, advisor, resource and public servant. The officer will leave with valuable information, knowledge, and resources to explore new skills that provide insight and a better understanding of the duties and expectations of the SRO.

Topics include:

- Community Policing – TRIAD
- Zero tolerance and Confidentiality
- Presentation exercise and presentation
- SRO in the classroom
- School security surveys
- Record keeping
- Legal issues

Successful completion of this course will be worth 2 college credits from Monroe Community College.

Tuition for this course is $256.00 per person in addition to $54.50 in student fees. A certificate of residency from out-of-Monroe county residents is required in order to avoid double tuition billing. You will be billed at the completion of the course. It will not be necessary to send a check or voucher prior to class.
